penters and Joiners, at River View, was exceptionally interesting.

Fully 1.500 people joined in making the carpenters' celebration the best they have ever held. The program of athletic events developed into splrited contests, the prizes attached to each event proving the incentive for exertion of the best efforts of the contestants.

While the sporting features were being held the "country circus" furnishing a continuous performance of the "best on earth" held forth at the north end of the grounds, and vied with the dancing pavilion at the opposite end in furnishing amusement for those who were not interested in the skill and endurance of the contenders of the athletic portion of the program.

The baseball game, the first number of the program, was won by the team representing the amalgamated branch, who defeated the brotherhood team by 8 to 5.

Jennie Mills won the 50-yard dash for girls under fourteen years, while the 160-yard dash for boys of the same age was won by George Byer. The three-legged race for members only was won by William Baresnan and Roy Gatewood The tug-of-war between teams of the two unions was declared a tie; each team winning a pull.

The evening was given over to dancing. The cake walking of the amateurs and reofertiered was worked to the amateurs and reofertiered was wintered to the amateurs and reofertiered to be of the carpentary of a lifetime pass without buying a home at the your Annual Collected and Delivered.
